ARCHIE PRESENTS:

DAFFY NITIONS

- THE WORD FOR TODAY -

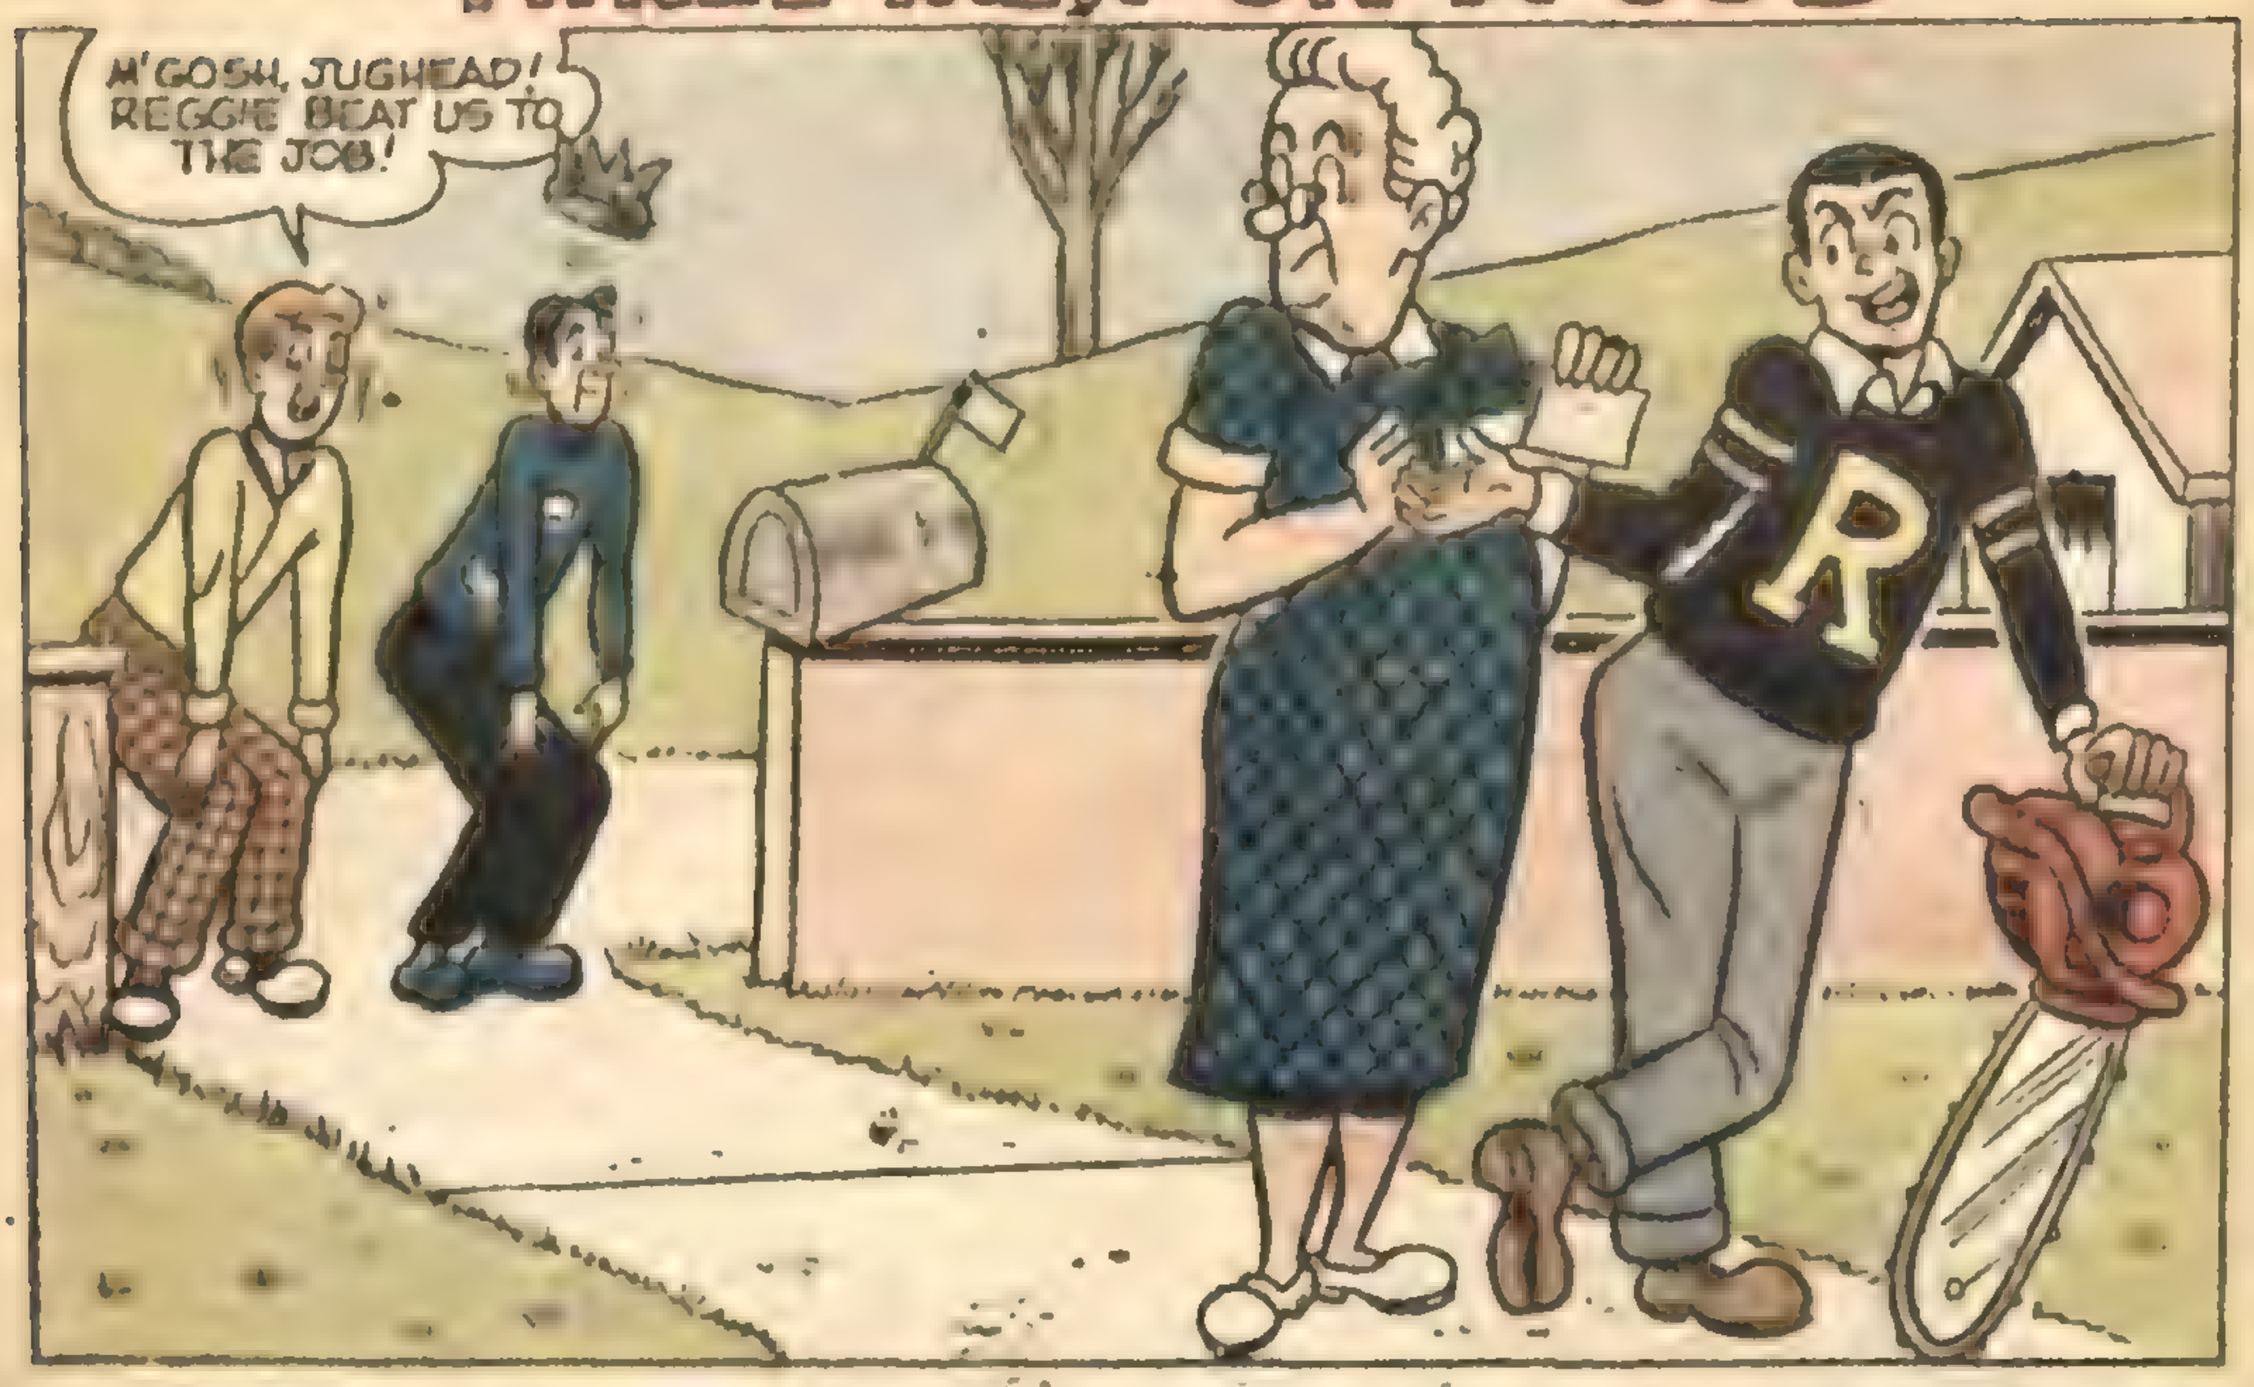
"TEENAGERS"

PEOPLE WHO EXPRESS A BURNING DESIRE TO BE DIFFERENT BY DRESSING ALIKE!

PEOPLE WHO GET HUNGRY AGAIN BEFORE THE DISHES ARE WASHED.

PEOPLE WHO TRY TO MAKE LITTLE BOYS STOP ACTING LIKE BOYS AND BE GOOD!

THREE MEN ON A JOB



A cheerful attitude on Archie's part when his pockets admittedly held nothing but lint, and the State Fair was but two days away, was enough to evoke more than an idle curiosity in Reggie. He noted at the same time that Jughead, who was equally destitute, was also wearing a cheerful expression. This was too much. It was common knowledge that it was Jughead who made it worthwhile having a food concession at the fair.

A little cautious inquiry into this strange situation revealed that the money problem lacked but a few hours of being solved to the complete and total satisfaction of both boys. A slight job of work, already contracted for, and promising good financial return was the reason behind the anticipatory grins.

Holding up a gleaming, two-man saw of the type used by lumberjacks, Archie explained that they were going to reap a profit of twenty, (count 'em, 20), dollars for the slicing up of a measly cord of firewood at the new farm situated out on the old Post road.

"Now here," thought Reggie, "is a challenge really worthy of my talents. Archie without money at the State Fair is a picture dear to my heart. He would be unable to take Veronica. I would be her natural second choice, and with the opportunity to lobby a bit for my cause, I might even become the eventual first choice."

The actual mechanics of any scheme to do Archie dirt came as natural as breathing to Reggie, and so a short time later he was standing before the counter of the local hardware store.

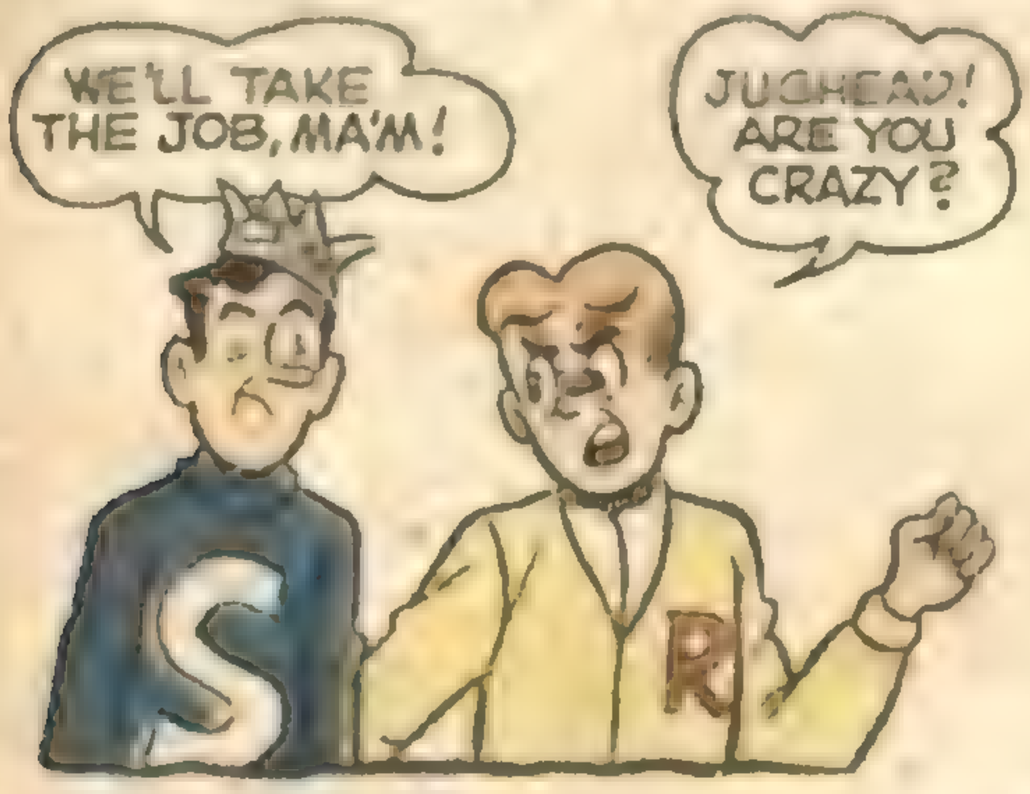
"Yes, I can rent you a power saw, Reggie," said the proprietor. "Five dollars a day."

"One day will do it fine, Mr. Smith," replied Reggie, reaching into his pocket for the five.

Archie and Jughead had just reached the farmhouse, ready to go to work and looking forward to the rewards of honest labor, when they saw Reggie sitting on the steps, waiting for them.

"To the rear, march, suckers," chuckled Reggie, displaying his power saw. "I just took over your job for half your price."

The two disappointed lumberjacks groaned in unison and collapsed on the steps as Reggie turned to the woman of the house.



"Lady, if you'll just show me the nearest electrical outlet, I'll . . ."

"But I'm afraid we don't have any . . ." began the woman.

Reggie blanched. "Omigosh! No electricity?"

"No, we just built the house, and . . ."

But Reggie had stopped listening. He slumped down on the steps and moaned. "Yipe!—And I'm out five fat bucks for the power saw."

Archie could hardly contain himself, he was laughing so hard. The thought of Reggie being caught by his own evil scheme was just too much for him. Suddenly the laughter stuck in his throat.

Jughead was offering to take over the rental of the saw for two dollars. Archie gaped, open mouthed. Reggie perked up quickly at the thought of another sucker. "It's a deal," he said hurriedly, afraid that Jughead might change his mind. "At least it cuts down my losses."

The two dollars changed hands with Archie still shaking his head in disbelief. With the money in his hand, Reggie began to laugh at Jughead. "What are you going to run the saw on, stupid?—Imagination?"

Jughead chose to ignore him but Archie finally snapped out of his trance to turn on his partner in fury. "He's right," he screamed. "You're nuttier than a fruitcake. What good is that saw to us if the house has no electricity?"

The slight smile on Jughead's face as he turned and entered the house should have been a tip off that he knew what he was doing. He first reestablished the original contract for the wood cutting at the price of twenty dollars, and then he asked the way to the cellar.

When he approached the wood pile a few moments later, both Reggie and Archie stared at him as if he had really flipped.

"Maybe he expects it to run on will power?" laughed Reggie to Archie.

Suddenly the saw started off with a tremendous roar, and Jughead began to slice the wood as though it were butter.

"H-Holy Cow!" exclaimed Reggie. "I thought there was no electricity?"

"That's right," shouted Jughead above the noise of the saw. "There wasn't—until I went down the cellar and threw the main switch on. The electricians had neglected to do it."

Jughead

"LAZY LADDIE"

EAT YOUR FISH, LITTLE ARCHIE!

I HATE FISH!

HOW AM I EVER GOING TO GET THIS BOY TO EAT HIS FISH?

PERHAPS I CAN HELP!

I DON'T SEE HOW?

I'LL TELL LITTLE ARCHIE A STORY!

HUH? THIS STORY IS GOING TO MAKE ME LIKE FISH?

WELL, IT'S A STORY THAT MY OWN DAD TOLD ME WHEN I WAS A BOY!

THIS HAPPENED TO YOUR GRANDFATHER. BACK A FEW GENERATIONS, AT VALLEY FORGE WITH GEORGE WASHINGTON AND HIS TROOPS!

GOLLEE!

EVERYONE HAS READ ABOUT THE SUFFERING AND HARDSHIPS THE MEN WENT THROUGH WITH NOT ENOUGH CLOTHING, SHOES AND BLANKETS...

..BUT RARER STILL WAS FOOD...

NOT MUCH MEAT, SIR, AND THERE'S ONLY A LITTLE FLOUR!

WITHOUT FOOD, WE CAN'T DO A GOOD JOB TRAINING THE TROOPS!

...THE COLD WINTER, DISEASES, AND LACK OF FOOD BECAME POWERFUL ALLIES AND MANY MEN LOST THEIR WILL TO FIGHT...

THERE WAS EVEN A SHORTAGE OF WATER AND THIS IS WHERE YOUR ANDREWS' ANCESTOR CAME IN...

..HE WAS ABOUT YOUR SIZE AND AGE AND BECAUSE HE WAS TOO SMALL FOR BEARING ARMS HE HAULED WATER FROM THE SCHUYLKILL RIVER...

...WITH NO DRAFT ANIMALS AVAILABLE HE HAULED A WAGON LOADED WITH WATER HIMSELF...

..ONE DAY, LATE IN FEBRUARY, HE WAS CARRYING WATER FROM THE RIVER AND...

...BUT THE INDIANS' ONLY INTEREST WAS FISH!

...THE BOY DROOLED AT THE SIGHT OF THE DELICIOUS FISH!

SO DID SOMEONE ELSE..

A LARGE GRIZZLY, MEAN AND HUNGRY.

...THE HEAVILY LOADED WAGON HURTLED DOWN THE HILL...

WHAM!

THE GREAT GRIZZLY HAS HUNGER FORGOTTEN BY THE TREMENDOUS BLOW, TORE OFF INTO THE WOODS.

...YOUR ANCESTOR SOON D... COVERED THE INDIAN FOR... NO ORDINARY INDIAN

...BUT THE SON OF THE CHIEF OF A NEARBY TRIBE...

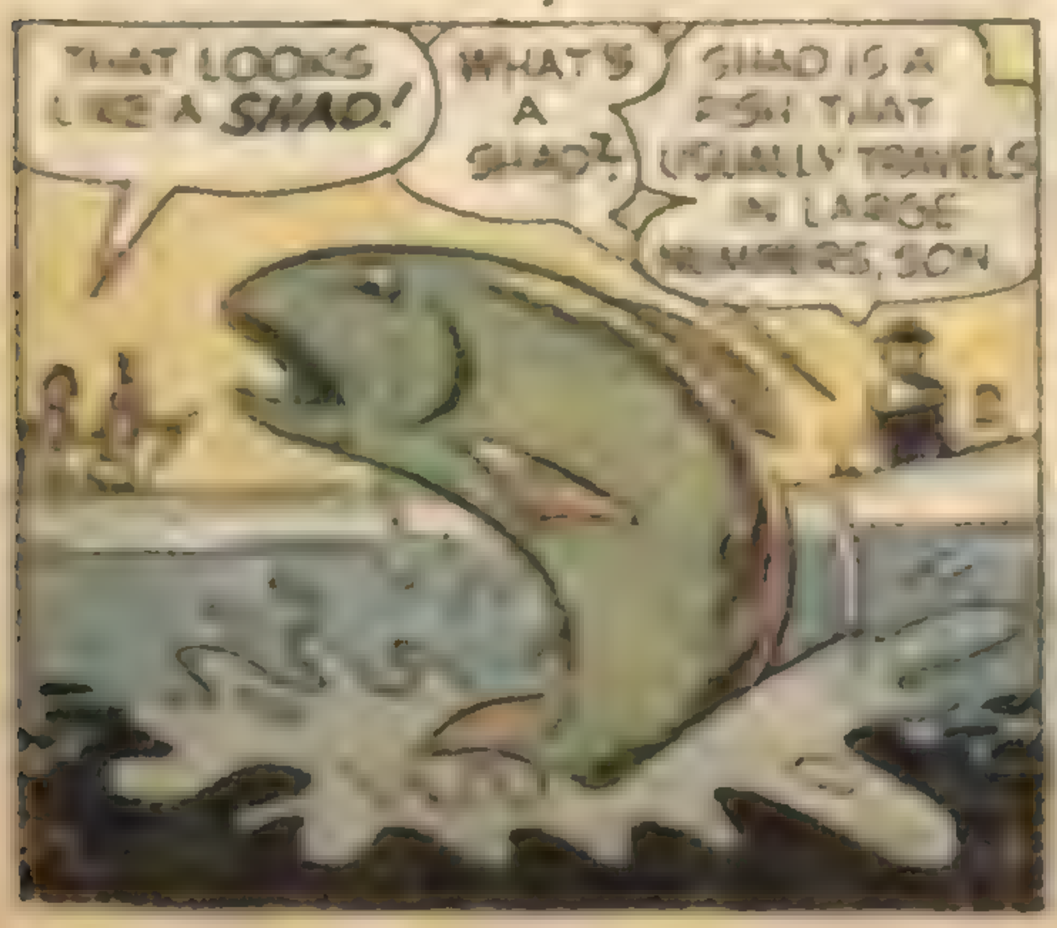
...WHO UP UNTIL THAT TIME HAD BEEN NEUTRAL IN THE WAR! NOW ALL THIS CHANGED!

...AFTER HIS SON'S COMPANION WAS PATCHED UP, THE GRATEFUL CHIEF SHOWED THEM A PLENTIFUL SOURCE OF FOOD...



...IF WE GET ENOUGH, THIS COULD REALLY HELP OUT OUR MEAGER FOOD SUPPLY!

THOUSANDS OF FISH! THEY'LL FEED US ALL!

...WASHINGTON'S TROOPS SCOOPED UP THE FISH WITH EVERYTHING BUT THE KITCHEN SINK...

..THE INDIANS BROUGHT SOME DRIED FRUIT AND VEGETABLES...

THE ABUNDANT SUPPLY OF FOOD DROPPED THE LOOK OF DESPAIR FROM MEN'S EYES...

...THEIR SPIRITS ROSE AND THE ARMY FOUND NEW COURAGE...

THIS WAS ONE OF THE REASONS THAT TURNED TIRED, BEATEN MEN INTO AN ARMY OF ENERGY AND POWER! THAT SPRING THE BRITISH WERE BEATEN BY A NEW AMERICAN ARMY..THE SPIRIT OF '76!

THAT WAS A GOOD STORY, POP!

YEP! AND JUST THINK! IT TOOK PLACE IN THE LIFE OF ONE OF YOUR ANCESTORS!

AND THIS IS THE SAME KIND OF FISH THEY HAD? SHAD?

I'M NOT A FISH EXPERT, BUT IT SURE LOOKS LIKE IT! TRY SOME!

HEY! THIS SHAD ISN'T BAD... MATTER OF FACT, IT'S GOOD! I LIKE IT!

CAN I HAVE YOUR SHAD TOO, POP?

NOTHING DOING! I LIKE FISH TOO, LITTLE ARCHIE!
